Process of filing nomination papers for LG polls 2022 in Balochistan completes

QUETTA: With thousands of contestants in the run, the process of filing nomination papers for the Local Government election 2022 in Balochistan concluded here on Thursday. "The list of the nominated candidates will be displayed tomorrow (Friday), said provincial election commissioner Fayaz Hussain Murad.

According to the schedule issued by ECP, the process of submitting nomination papers to the Returning Officers started from April 15.

"The scrutiny of nomination papers will continue till April 25, after which appeals against the decisions of Returning Officers will be filed from April 25 to 28 and decisions will be taken on April 29 to 06 May," Provincial Election Commissioner further said.

According to the schedule, the revised lists of candidates will be posted on May 7, while nomination papers can be withdrawn till May 9. Candidates will be allotted election symbols on May 10. As per ECP schedule, apart from Quetta and Lasbela, the first phase of Local Government election would be held in 32 districts of Balochistan on May 29, 2022. In all Union Councils, 33 percent seats have been allocated for women, 5 percent for farmers and workers, 5 percent seats for non-Muslims in the Local Government elections. There are 5,345 rural wards besides 914 urban wards.

'Energy crucial for socio-economic development': The speakers at a conference here Thursday said as energy was crucial for socio-economic development, there was need for new dams and full exploitation of renewable energy to cope with ever increasing gap between its supply and demand. The conference titled "Energy Needs of Pakistan" was held under the aegis of Model Steel Group of Companies. Chairing the conference, Abdul Basit, former president of Lahore Chamber of Commerce and Industry (LCCI) and Convener of Kalabagh Dam Committee, stressed on full utilisation of the renewable energy resources and the construction of new dams, including the Kalabagh Dam, for storage of water for both irrigation and power purpose, on urgent basis. He said hydropower was the cheapest source of renewable energy in Pakistan with great potential and worth billions of rupees.

He said Pakistan was among the world's top 10 water-scarce nations. "Because of climate change and other developments, we suffer from floods during the summer and drought in the winter repeatedly," he said, adding the flood water could be stored for multiple purposes. Abdul Basit pointed out,"Trans-boundary water cooperation plays a crucial role in supporting wider regional integration, peace and sustainable development as well as tackling regional security challenges and in supporting climate change adaption." He emphasised the need for trans-boundary cooperation that assumed even greater urgency with rising water scarcity. Conference host Meher Kashif Younis, also LCCI's former senior vice president, said at present Pakistan met its over 75 percent energy requirements from domestic resources, including 50.4 percent by the indigenous gas, 28.4 percent by domestic and imported oil, and 12.7 percent by hydro-electricity. He said Pakistan had four main renewable sources, which included wind, solar, hydro and biomass, which had a significant potential to provide long lasting solutions for its energy crisis. These resources, he said, if fully exploited would greatly help diverse the energy supply market, decrease dependency on imported fuels, and do away with environment pollution. —APP

British PM Johnson arrives in India for hard sell on anti-Russia action

LONDON: British Prime Minister Boris Johnson arrived in India on Thursday touting job-creating investment but facing long odds to get his reluctant counterpart Narendra Modi to back Western action against Russia.

Johnson arrived in western Gujarat — Modi's home state — where he is scheduled to meet business leaders and take a cultural tour of the historic Ahmedabad city, the ancestral home to half of the Anglo-Indian population in Britain.

He will leave for New Delhi to meet his Indian counterpart on Friday, providing Johnson some respite from the "party-gate" controversy over his criminal violation of pandemic lockdown rules. Johnson will miss a parliamentary vote on Thursday into whether he deliberately misled the House of Commons in previously denying any Downing Street rule-breaking — normally a resigning matter. The India trip has been twice postponed because of Covid flare-ups in each country, and was briefly in doubt again this week when the vote was announced, with opposition leaders insisting Johnson stand down. But UK sources said it was seen as too important to put off again. Downing Street said it would seal two-way investment deals worth more than 1 billion ($1.3 billion), creating almost 11,000 jobs in Britain. The visit will "deepen the strategic trade, defence and people-to-people ties between our two countries", Johnson told parliament before flying out of London.

Downing Street said the visit would yield new partnerships on defence, artificial intelligence and green energy, along with investment deals in areas including robotics, electric vehicles and satellite launches. "Our powerhouse partnership is delivering jobs, growth and opportunities for our people, and it will only go from strength to strength in the coming years," Johnson added in a statement.

However, London acknowledges that it is some way off clinching a post-Brexit trade deal with Modi's government, which wants more visas for Indians to work or study in the UK. India meanwhile has refused openly to condemn the Kremlin for its invasion of Ukraine, reliant as it is on Russian imports of energy, agricultural goods and military hardware. —Reuters

Johnny Depp says Amber would insult, throw things at him

WASHINGTON: "Pirates of the Caribbean" star Johnny Depp testified that his ex-wife Amber Heard would regularly "verbally decimate" him, slap him and throw things at him.

Depp, taking the witness stand for a second day of testimony in his defamation case against Heard, said their relationship began to deteriorate after about a year or 18 months of marriage. "I was suddenly just wrong about everything," the 58-year-old Hollywood star told the jury hearing the case in Fairfax County Circuit Court in Virginia. Heard, who had a starring role in the movie "Aquaman," would "verbally decimate me" with a "sort of rapid fire, endless parade of insults," Depp said. "It seemed like pure hatred for me." Depp, who was married to Heard from 2015 to 2017, said he would frequently retreat to another room to escape her rage. "I would just go and lock myself in the bathroom or anywhere that she couldn't get into," he said. "If I stayed to argue, eventually I was sure that it was going to escalate into violence and oftentimes it did," he said. —AP
